Occasionally, Lincoln students may invite non-Lincoln students to join them for the day. The high school principal welcomes guests on campus. In the interests of security and out of courtesy to the classes and teachers, permission will not be granted without prior request under any circumstances. While teachers usually welcome guests to their classrooms, there may be occasions when guests cannot be accommodated. Guests are expected to arrive at school with and depart with their hosting student. Guests must spend all their time on campus with their host student, following the same academic schedule. Guests are limited to a maximum of one day when visiting Lincoln campus. Guests are expected to abide by Lincoln's rules and guidelines, and the host student is responsible for the behavior of his or her guest while on campus. The high school principal reserves the right to withhold permission of a visiting student.
